For Complex Incidents
(ICS-400)

August 01 – 02, 2012

New Marshall County Health Department Training Room
267 Slickback Road
Benton, KY 42025

Offered by:

Kentucky Division of Emergency Management (KyEM) Region 1

Course Description:

ICS400 is intended to serve as a vehicle to share proven incident management strategies and practices as well as to enhance teamwork and coordination among all response agencies' officers directly responsible for emergency response to a WMD/terrorism incident or other "Incident of National Significance". The course is specifically intended for those emergency response personnel who have duties that require that they be directly involved in incident management or command at either a "field" Incident command post (ICP) or in a city, county, or regional emergency operations center (EOC). Course work will begin each day at 8:00am and conclude at 4:30 pm Central Time.

Student Criteria:

This course is open to all Emergency Management, Rescue, Fire, Emergency Medical, and Law Enforcement personnel or other organization having responsibility for incident management. Pre-requisites include ICS700, ICS800, ICS100, ICS200 and ICS300. Copies of these course completion certificates must be provided on or before beginning of class. You may upload them at the registration page or fax them to the number below.

Special Notes:

A MINIMUM # of twenty (20) advance student registrations is REQUIRED and must be received by Monday, July 23, 2012 in order to conduct this course. You are considered accepted as a student in this class upon receipt of your application so you will not receive a letter acknowledging that acceptance. Meals, lodging, and travel arrangements/expenses are the responsibility of the student and will NOT be reimbursed by KYEM. Course work will begin each day at 8:00 am and end at 5:00 pm

Registration:

Registration application for the course can be completed using the following link: www.kyem.ky.gov/training and click on register. Students will be notified if the course is cancelled. For this reason, it is imperative that you provide accurate contact information.
