Course Description

An Extremely Hazardous Substance (EHS) Facility Emergency Response Plan is required by the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (EPCRA) and establishes guidance for both Facility Emergency Coordinators and Emergency Responders in the case of an incident involving an Extremely Hazardous Substance (EHS). The plan covers critical information regarding the EHS and how it is handled by the facility, response points, staging areas, and protective actions to be used in a chemical emergency. Each participant will have the opportunity to initiate and complete one EHS Facility Emergency Response Plan during the course. There will also be extensive guidance regarding Tier II submission and the List of Lists.

Student Criteria

This course is open to all Local Emergency Planning Committee members or Emergency Management personnel having responsibility for EHS Facility Emergency Response Plan submission in the Hazconnect Planning Module. Bring a computer or other device that will allow you to access your Tier II files and work on a Tier II ESH Plan. No pre-requisites required to attend.
