Course Description

ICS400 is intended to serve as a vehicle to share proven incident management strategies and practices as well as to enhance teamwork and coordination among all responsible agencies' officers directly responsible for Emergency response to a WMD/terrorist incident or other "Incident of National Significance". The course is specifically intended for those emergency response personnel who have duties that require that they be directly involved in incident management command at either a "field" Incident command post (ICP) or in a City, County, or regional Emergency Operations Center (EOC). Class will start promptly at 8:00a.m. CST and will end at 5:00p.m. CST each day.

Student Criteria

This course is open to all Emergency Management, Rescue, Fire, Emergency Medical, and Law Enforcement personnel or other organizations having responsibility for incident management. The prerequisite is ICS300. A copy of this course completion certificate must be provided before beginning of class. You may email it to the POC listed below.

Special Notes
