CSEPP-KYEM Wednesday Webinar April 30, 2025- Virtual Media (Zoom®) Noon EST Offered by KYEM & CSEPP

Webinar Title: Fork In The Road: Ten Decisions, Challenges and Opportunities for Disaster Communicators

Description: When disaster strikes, you are there to make a difference – and you will be faced with decisions, challenges, and opportunities that will define success for you and the people you serve. In this session, Ed Conley will provide practical real-world perspectives on how to overcome setbacks, develop teams, respond compassionately, and serve with integrity. These practices are derived from years of working in the “eye of the storm” – from 9/11 to Hurricane Katrina, the 2010 Haiti Earthquake to Superstorm Sandy, and the Columbine School Shooting to the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill. As communicators, it is crucial that we are prepared to make decisions amid chaos, set operational priorities, and engage with the public in the most challenging scenarios imaginable.
