Resiliency Training for Search and Rescue (SAR) Teams December 12, 2020

State Wide Virtual Delivery Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

Provided in Partnership with Kentucky Emergency Management (KYEM) and Kentucky Community Crisis Response Board (KCCRB)

Course Description:

This course is designed to provide training to prepare SAR Team Members, County SAR Coordinators, Emergency Notification Center Personnel, Law Enforcement Officers, Fire and Rescue Personnel, and other search managers on how to manage stress associated with their response to critical incidents and disasters. This course will provide virtual classroom instruction on stress reaction and responses often found during prolonged periods of exposure to threatening situations, disasters, and circumstances first responders may encounter in their day to day environments. Entire course will be conducted in a web-based/virtual classroom environment. SAR team leaders may act as facilitators for discussion at their individual team location. Virtual Class will be from 9:00 am to 11:30 am EST.

Student Criteria:

This course is open to all Search and Rescue Team members, Emergency Management Personnel, Rescue, Fire, Emergency Call Center Personnel, and Law Enforcement personnel. You must be at least 18 years old to register for the course.

Special Notes:

Advance student registration is REQUIRED and must be received by December 9, 2020 order to participate in this course. The course will be limited to the first 30 registered participants. Teams may register as a single group and may participate in a team environment with prior coordination from the POC below. There will be an examination at the end of the training and all participants must score a 70% or greater to pass this course and receive a certification of completion. You are considered registered for this course once this office receives your electronic registration. Letters acknowledging registration will not be sent. Course materials will be sent to students the day prior to class starting via email or be sent to the SAR Team Leader via mail. Team leaders MUST contact Kathy Humes below before registering the team.
