

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

COURSE TITLE: Managing Food Emergencies: Strategies for a Community Response (MGT-447)

DATE: July 24-25, 2024

LOCATION: Campbell County Fire Training Center
10 Training Center Drive
Highland Heights, KY

TIME: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM each day

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course helps jurisdictions develop a plan to effectively respond to a large food emergency. The goal of the course is to encourage multidisciplinary, multiagency planning to quickly mobilize resources in a food emergency. The course uses a whole community approach combined with NIMS, the Incident Command System (ICS), and the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) to respond to food emergencies. Participants will learn how to identify a food emergency that should trigger a response; apply the principles of ICS; determine roles during a food emergency; identify resources; successfully communicate with other agencies and the public; and what to do during the recovery phase. The course combines facilitated discussion and scenario-based training to give participants tangible experience applicable to a real-world food emergency.

PARTICIPANT CRITERIA:

• Healthcare provider administration • Hospital clinical leadership • Hospital non-clinical supervisors • Hospital liaison officers • Hospital safety, emergency planning and emergency preparedness • Mental health professionals • Home healthcare and hospice • Functional needs caretaker • Local, county and state public health departments • Emergency management organizations • Emergency medical services • Fire departments • Law enforcement • Public information officers • Public works directors • Elected officials • Transportation administration • Schools • Human services • Community health centers • Non-governmental and faith-based • Veterinarians and veterinarian technicians
