COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course covers foundational concepts in disaster recovery and the latest guidance on recovery planning. Participants will either assess their own recovery plan or a sample against this national planning guidance. Following that, participants will discuss how a disaster recovery effort can be organized, managed, and led along with the types of challenges faced by recovery managers. Scenario activities throughout the course give participants the opportunity to target information strategies, and address local capabilities and challenges. The class will begin at 9:00a.m. EST and end at 5:00p.m. EST on both days.

Student Criteria

The audience for this course includes a wide variety of those involved in community disaster recovery. Among those might be: Local elected officials; city/county managers and planners; members of Regional Planning Commissions and Economic Development Districts; Emergency Managers and staff; Public Works Directors; Health Care Administrator or Planner; Public Information Officer; Housing Director or Planner/Staff; Voluntary Agency Coordinators; Faith-Based Leaders; Business Organization Representatives; and State Recovery Staff and Partners. There are no prerequisites for this training.
