Local Emergency Management Director Training-Module Four October 21, 2020

Virtual Delivery

OBJECTIVE: The Kentucky Division of Emergency Management (KYEM) will provide to newly appointed and experienced local emergency management professionals a basic understanding of and updates on Emergency Management statutes and regulations, the operation of KYEM branches, and ancillary support programs available to aid local emergency management personnel.

Course Description: The primary focus of this course is to provide training to new County Emergency Management Directors and Assistant Directors within 12 months of appointment to their position. In addition, this training may also be of significant value to veteran County Emergency Directors, Deputy Directors, other emergency management staff and volunteers. All students should have completed the online IS-700, IS-800, IS-100, and IS-200 courses prior to attending this training. Copies of course completion certificates must be provided no later than the first day of training to the POC listed below.

Students will receive training and education on the basic principles needed to operate their local emergency management office and will leave the training with a comprehensive, basic understanding of the Emergency Management organization at the local, state, and federal levels.

This virtual delivery will begin promptly at 9:00 A.M (Eastern) and conclude no later than 1:30 P.M. (Eastern). Hours of delivery for each module of training may vary and a course outline will be emailed to accepted participants. Students should have paper, pens, and pencils readily available for use during the course.

Special Notes: Advance student registration is REQUESTED and should be received by October 20, 2020 in order to participate in this course. You are considered accepted as a student in this class upon receipt of your application by this office so you will not receive a letter acknowledging that acceptance.

Registration: Click here for Registration. When registering, please use proper name as you would like it to appear on your certificate. Students will be notified if the course is cancelled. For this reason, it is imperative that you provide accurate and complete contact information.
