HazMat Awareness 4 Hour Virtual Training Tuesday, October 27, 2020 12:00pm – 4:00pm (EST)

Course Description:

This 4 hour specialized course is designed train first responders who are likely to witness or discover a hazardous materials (HAZMAT) release. These individuals must be trained to initiate an emergency response sequence by notifying the proper authorities, but taking no further action. This course is designed from the NFPA 1072 and OSHA HAZWOPER 29 CFR 1910.120.

Learning Objectives/Topics Covered:

- Identify the difference between hazardous materials/Weapons of Mass Destructions (WMD) incidents and other emergencies
- Identify the location of both the emergency response plan and/or standard operation procedures
- Define the terms hazardous materials (or dangerous goods, in Canada) and weapons of mass destruction
- Understand the difference(s) between the standards and federal regulations that govern hazardous material response activities
- Describe the different levels of hazardous materials training: awareness, operations, technician, specialist, and incident commander
- Explain the need for a planned response to a hazardous material incident

Student Criteria:

This course is open to all Emergency Management, Rescue, Fire, Environmental, HazMat Response, Emergency Medical, Law Enforcement personnel or any organization having responsibility for responding to a hazardous materials incident. Students are evaluated on their attentiveness during instruction and participation in small group activities and class discussions.
